

Recording Form for Endosulfan Supplies

Purpose of this Form

Since 30 September 1999 endosulfan products can only be supplied to or used by an authorised person.

An authorised person is one who:

- conducts the business of selling or supplying agricultural chemical products; or
- is a State licensed pesticide applicator; or
- holds a Spray Safe Certificate issued by the AAAA; or
- hold a chemical users Certificate (AQF level 3 or above) or statements of attainment, issued by a Registered Training Organisation for the following 2 competency units:
  - RTC3705A Transport, handle and store chemicals
  - RTC3704A Prepare and apply chemicals

Note: The requirements for use of endosulfan may differ in each State or Territory. Users must ensure that state and territory Control of use legislation is adhered to.

For further details of specific state requirements and certifications which have been found acceptable to the APVMA for the purposes of supply and use of endosulfan please go to <http://www.apvma.gov.au>

Keep Records Relating to Each Sale

Any person who supplies endosulfan must make, on each occasion on which the product is supplied to a recipient, a record containing the following particulars:

- a) the distinguishing name of the product;
- b) the name and address of the supplier;
- c) the name and address of the Recipient;
- d) if the Recipient is not a person who conducts the business of selling or supplying agricultural chemical products, the distinguishing number or identifying mark of the Authorising Certificate or spraying contractor's license;
- e) the date of supply of the product to the Recipient and
- f) the quantity of the product supplied to the Recipient.

Note: That the "name and address of the supplier" above refers to whoever is supplying endosulfan in this instance, that is, the details of the wholesaler or retailer concerned. The APVMA has produced a model form of an "Endosulfan Sales Record" for recording sales of endosulfan products. In addition, the APVMA will accept copies of invoices as long as the invoice contains all of the information required in the sales record as noted above.

These sales records must be retained for at least 2 years from the date of sale and may be audited or inspected by regulatory authorities.

Page two of this document contains a form for keeping these records however resellers may also keep the information in electronic form on a computer or in another form provided at last the above information is kept and is available to the APVMA upon request.
